VETS HOUSING GIVEN STAMP OF APPROVAL AFTER TOUR

Flattering remarks of approval were received by members of the Arlington Housing Authority Tuesday morning when one of the buildings was open for inspection. The apartments were declared ready for occupancy the next day (yesterday). The first finished are three-bedroom lay-outs. Some have all the bedrooms on the second floor; others with two upstairs and one on the first floor. Each bedroom has a closet. The same is true of the living room. The large cellars provide more storage space.

The kitchens appear efficiently compact and are equipped with large refrigerators as well as wall and floor cabinets. The living rooms have a spacious appearance.

Rentals will vary by about $25 and $41 with $50 absolute tops. The amount charged will depend upon the size of the family and the income earned. A veteran with three children will pay less than one with two or one.

The easy rule-of-thumb basis is as follows:

A veteran with three children will pay a monthly rental of 14 percent of his annual income. Thus a man earning $2000 will pay $28 per month rent.

A veteran with less than three children will pay 18 percent of his annual income.

The maximum annual income a veteran may earn and still be eligible for housing is $3250 with two children, $3500 with three or more.

Of those making the tour of inspection were Representatives Keenan and Gott, Paul Mossman, local inspector of buildings, said, "This is one of the best projects from a structural standpoint in the town. It conforms strictly with our own building code."

MISFORTUNES PLAGUE TRACKMEN; LOSE TO WATERTOWN HIGH, 58-19

"Everything went wrong—just one of those days," said Coach Doc McCarty, after his boys took a bad beating from Watertown Saturday at the East Armory.

First of all, the Red and Gray trackmen were greatly handicapped by the absence of Rindoni and Myers, shot-punters, and Red Salisbury, dashman. Sickness and other important reasons were responsible.

Secondly, Arlington's bright star, Collier, fell at the second hurdle and failed to place. After the race one of the officials admitted that the second flight was misplaced, being several feet closer than should be. Collier has been consistently a record-breaker in 45-yd. hurdles in spite of his 3 ft. 6 in height and 113 lbs. avoirdupois.

Fine performances for first place were turned in by Kenealy. Fine performances for first place were turned in by Kenealy in the 300 and Bob Stevens in the 1,000. In the latter, Stevens hung up a new mark at 2 min. 29s.

Collier came back in the high jump and took first place with a leap of 5 ft. 7 in., another record.

Other important point-winners were Charlie Leveroni and Don Wilson.

FOR SAFETY AT THE WHEEL the School Department has inaugurated a course in driver training. The use of the Ford car in connection with the course was supplied by Charles B. Perham, local Ford dealer.

For several years the high school has had a course in driver education. The use of the car will enable the course to be expanded to include driver training. Four competent faculty members will instruct.

YOUTH WEEK OBSERVED

The Park Avenue Congregational church ushered in Youth Week on Sunday, January 29, with the young people conducting the Sunday morning worship service and the youth choir, directed by Edward W. Center, sang the anthems.

The following members of Fellowship and Forum participated in leading the worship: Jewel Arthurs, Jeannette Burg, Betty Center, Brenton Croft, Robert Hanlon, Walter Martin, Philip Morrison, Martha Sloan, Alan Strong, Priscilla Taylor, Bruce Whitton and Frederick Whitton. The ushers for the service were William Bennett, Beverly Brooks, Hartwell Flemming, Jr., Bentley Gustafson, Paul Leonard, and Nancy Loring.

Youth events for the week included regular meetings of Fellowship, Forum and PACT on Sunday evening; Boy Scouts on Monday; Girl Scouts on Tuesday; and the first meeting of the pastor's class on Wednesday for those young people who wish to join the church.

A Young People's roller skating party is planned for Saturday, Feb. 4, at 7:30 p.m.

The Sunday morning worship service on February 5 will be dedicated by the Boy Scouts. The Scouts will meet before the service, will attend service in uniform and will participate in the service. The Rev. Edward W. Bauam, Jr., assistant minister, will preach a sermon.

Youth Week will be concluded with a Vesper Service and Holy Communion on Sunday, Feb. 5 at 7:00 p.m. The following young people will take part in the service: Stella Carter, Catherine Evans, Nancy Hurd, Richard Martin, Ruth Morton, and Robert

Police Nab Two On Telephone Tip

Officers William Burns and George Alexie arrested two Cambridge men on charges of larceny and breaking and entering Tuesday night, after a resident of Park avenue called local police and reported suspicious to Lt. T. Francis Meagher.

Joseph G. Dermady, 20, of 54 Webster avenue, Cambridge, and John J. Perry, 22, of 292 Columbia street, Cambridge, both parolees from Concord Reformatory will appear today in East Cambridge Court to answer to four charges of breaking and entering and larceny in the nighttime at 17 Temple street, 74 Highland avenue, 29 Gloucester street, and 3 Lorne road. The charge of attempt to enter at 143 Park avenue will be added. With the exception of the last address, a small amount of money was stolen from each home entered.

SALUTE

Charles C. McCarthy, 66 Princeton road, and Kathy MacAllister, 27 Wright street, both of Arlington, were greeted "happy birthday" on the January 21st broadcast of the YOUNG TIMERS CLUB heard over WCOP.

Charles was nine and Kathy, five, both on Jan. 24.

Welsh. Ushers for the service will be "Buddy" Dahlberg, Gordon Jones, Alan Strong, and Bruce Whitton. Deacons and Deaconesses will be Keith Barnhill, Marilyn Barnhill, Richard Bernard and Marilyn Croft. Rev. Milton Frederick Schadege will present the communion meditation and will serve communion.

1700 Signatures For Magnuson

Over 1700 signatures on nomination papers for Harold E. Magnuson were filed with Town Clerk James J. Golden last week. The many and various persons who joined in nominating Mr. Magnuson as Moderator fully represent all sections of the Town. They indicate widespread and enthusiastic support for Mr. Magnuson from the voters as a whole.

The Magnuson for Moderator Committee has now organized throughout the Town with workers in every precinct. Chairman Herbert O. Alderson has scheduled several meetings in the next few weeks when detailed campaign plans will be developed and carried into effect.

DAVID T. SHUTE of 68 Chester st., has been named an assistant vice-president of Liberty Mutual Insurance Company. He will handle public liability loss prevention.

Mr. Shute joined the company's New England engineering department in 1926, became assistant to the chief engineer in 1937 and has been assistant to the manager, loss prevention department, since 1940. A graduate of Lowell Institute, he is a member of the National Fire Protection Association Building Exits Code

Planning Board Holds Hearings

In connection with the proposed changes to facilitate flow of traffic in Arlington Centre, it is understood the Planning Board has been holding a series of conferences with interested parties.

On Monday night a conference was held with the Park Department. This was followed by a meeting with abutters on Chestnut st. Dr. Daniel W. Shea and Dr. Walter J. E. Carroll, both attended with their counsel, Philip A. Hendrick.

According to Mr. Hendrick no complaint has been registered. The meeting was to acquaint his clients and himself with the plans. "It is difficult to tell from the plans we saw, just what areas the Planning Board proposes to take," he said.

That there is considerable discussion of the proposed changes around town is evident everywhere. That a change is needed appears to be admitted by many. However, most people questioned by this paper, are reserving judgment until the Planning Board publishes the plans.

One competent observer who requested that his name be withheld said, "In proceedings of this kind we must move carefully. We want to be sure we won't be acting for the benefit of some private real estate interests. Another thing, are motorists from outside Arlington going to benefit at our expense?"

Keenan's Plans

In the hearing stage at the present time is a bill filed by Representative Henry E. Keenan of Arlington and John J. Fitzpatrick of Medford which would route traffic emerging from Pleasant st. going north, down Mass. ave. and around the fire station, back up Mass. ave. to Medford st., taking a right turn there.

In reverse, he recommends that traffic, southbound, be one way along Chestnut and Mystic streets to the Center. He urged the immediate adoption of his plan.

—The young people of the Arlington Heights Methodist Church who were received as preparatory members at the morning worship service on Sunday are Carol Colton, Lillian Colton, Carol Morgan, Dorothy Bancroft, Ruth Bancroft, Virginia Lyons, Jean Harris, Beverly Warnock, Samuel Warnock, LeRoy Smith, Arnold Aldrich and Warren Webb.

Postpones Endorsement of Candidates For Library and Park Department. Secret Ballot Used In Backing Candidates for Contested Spots.

A meeting at which nearly every motion for endorsement was closely contested by secret ballot was held by the Citizens' Committee Tuesday night at the Old Town Hall. In two instances for Library Trustee and Park Commission, the names of candidates proposed for endorsement were rejected and sent to the qualifications committee and directors. About sixty members and officers were in attendance.

Phil Pelligrini presided and was confronted with several difficult decisions in parliamentary procedure during the course of the meeting.

Those candidates for contested offices endorsed by the Committee, several names by the closest to accept, 50 to reject, with one blank.

The name of George F. Fusco for Park Commissioner was also recommended by virtue of a vote to table, 44 to 1. On previous ballots, Fusco was unable to gain a clear majority of those voting: 30 yes, 27 no, 3 blanks and 29 yes, 27 no, 6 blanks.

Speaks For Frost

Only three members of the qualifications committee were present, including John O'Neil, John Wright and Francis Pierce. Chairman William Houser and John Mulcahy were absent. The absence of these was felt when the three in attendance refused to act by recommending "no recommendation" during the battle for Park Commissioner. Accordingly the endorsed candidates for this office as well as Library Trustee will not be named until considered at the next meeting on Tuesday, February 7.

When the name of S. S. Donoghue was presented for Selectman, Felix Cutler made an appeal for Edmund L. Frost, the other candidate. He pointed to Frost's qualifications, feeling that they were greater. James Doyle spoke in favor of acceptance of Donoghue, saying that the qualifications committee had had an opportunity to study the merits of the two men and therefore should be supported. Donoghue's name carried 34 to 26 with one blank.

Big Margin

The O'Brien brothers, John and William, both spoke for Glynn for Library Trustee. The former said, "I believe the board of trustees should have some new blood. The present board thinks only of the economic side of problems. The needs and wants of the people should be considered, too."

William O'Brien cited that, as a student, the local library "is hopelessly inadequate as a reference library."

Both wanted it made clear that they were not criticizing Lucinda Spofford, librarian.

Felix Cutler again spoke stating that the preceding arguments were "altogether too sweeping," perhaps due to "youthful enthusiasm." He suggested that since three exceptionally qualified men were running—Keefe, Elliott and Glynn—the Committee should endorse, all three, letting the voter decide.

of margins, were George A. Harres, for moderator; Stephen S. Donoghue, selectman; Thomas S. Rawson, public works; Walter S. Coolidge, assessors; M. Norcross Stratton, John P. Morine, and Mary K. Boyd, all for school committee; Robert A. Mahoney, planning board (1 year term); Harold A. Yeames, sinking fund; Dr. J. Carroll, public health.

$22,000,000,000 A YEAR

By official records, 7,685,000 persons — about one out of every eight workers in the country — are drawing Government pay.

The total includes members of the armed forces and school system employees. The Federal pay roll was running somewhat higher than that for State and local governments, but the latter employed more people.

Commerce Department data showed Government pay rolls hit a peacetime peak of $21,900,000,000 a year in November, and it appears the climb is continuing.

Poet's Corner

The reason for this poem is because of an accident on a recent morning after a truck hit a hydrant.

Who is the Sir Walter Raleigh on Wyman Street,
That takes care of the people during rain, snow and sleet?

He saw that the gutter was full of water
And soon discovered what was the matter.

There was a school marm and some nice little typists
It would be quite hard to decide which were the nicest.

They were deciding how to cross the street
Without getting splashed and wetting their feet.

So he obtained a plank to make a walk
And proceeded to watch them like a hawk.

To use this walk there were no charges
But you felt you were walking the plank of some barges.

Last but not least came his charming wife
Tiptoeing across, so afraid for her life.

And though he considers her his right hand
He couldn't help her as he was holding a bucket of sand.

The fellow we credit for all this work done
Is as bright as a light or the noon day sun.

He did this all on his own, and oh, so cheery
You know it's none other than good Mister Geary.

Berlin Airlift Film To Be Shown Here

The Arlington Military Manpower Committee has planned a program for Wednesday, Feb. 2, at 8:00 p.m. in the Robbins Library Hall which will reveal many new developments in air power as a modern weapon of national defense.

Two films will be shown, the first "The Air Force Comes of Age" will demonstrate the newest defense program. The second "Operation Vittles" is a documentary film of the struggle to feed the people of the western sector of Berlin throughout two years of blockade by the operation of the airlift. One of the heroes of this vital United States victory will be the speaker with this picture and Arlington is fortunate to be among the very first to see and hear this story. Captain Robert J. Green, U.S.A.F., spent two years on this assignment and is just back and is now making his home here in Arlington so he doubly deserves a cordial welcome.

Major Roy Millar, Public Information Officer, N. E. District, has seen war service all over the world and was in charge of the Eighth Army Prison in Japan at the close of the war, will also be on this program. He also is a local resident.

—The World Friendship Study Group of the Universalist Church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Edith Winn, 50 Academy st., with Mrs. Waldo G. Edwards as leader. Dessert was served prior to the meeting.

Gaudet Appointed By Holy Name Soc.

The Holy Name Society of St. James Parish will sponsor a concert by the Holy Name Choral Society of the Archdiocese of Boston, Friday, March 17, in Robbins Memorial Town Hall.

Joseph Gaudet

Joseph Gaudet of Paul Reveré road will be master of ceremonies. He has recently been appointed chairman of special activities of the Archdiocesan Union of Holy Name Societies.

The concert committee includes: the Rev. Robert Shea, spiritual director; Joseph Warren, general chairman; Charles Armour, John O'Neill, William Green, James O'Connor and Frank C. Hart.

That Man About Town

By MAT

As this is written, the Citizens' Committee is about to make its endorsements of candidates for local offices. We are sure that the boss will carry the full details on the front page. Hence we will make our comments later.

We hope that the frequent lethargy of voters in town elections will not make itself apparent this year. While last year's vote was a high one, for town election, it represented about fifty percent of the voters, which is not good. While we predicted a hectic campaign in the last issue, we are still waiting for some organization to really "pick up the ball" and get out the vote. It can be done. But only by an all-out effort on the part of civic minded people.

Rep. Patman (D-Tex.) wants Congress to authorize 6 1/2¢ and 12 1/2¢ coins while Sen. Downey (D-Cal.) wants a 7 1/2¢ coin. A newspaper publisher editorializes in Boston for a 3¢ and 7¢ piece. Nobody wants a good 5¢ cigar anymore.

The Navy has ordered a court of inquiry to determine how the battleship Missouri got stuck in the mud. When this is settled, it is expected that a court of inquiry will be convened to determine how to get the Missouri out of the mud.

There is talk about the town, mostly from residents of unaccepted streets, that the Finance Committee is considering a bond issue to build the over $300,000 worth of streets approved by the Joint Board. This is a step in the right direction. As the abutters eventually pay the whole cost of the street and part of the fringe issues, the town could make a profit. Its like this: abutters pay 4 percent on the cost over a ten year period while the town can borrow for half or less than that. Of course the abutter who pays the bill when rendered pays no interest. Such a bond issue would, perhaps, be paid off by the town in 20 years and would keep the tax rate from an enormous bulge this year, or next. It's a form of budget plan.

Two years ago, we wrote, "No one can appreciate the feelings of a defeated candidate but himself." This holds true also for those who had hoped for the Citizens' Committee endorsement but did not obtain it. All who tried are good citizens and these isn't any doubt about that. We continued, "The loser may appear to laugh it off and he may display great

On Tuesday, Jan. 24, a tea for new members of the League of Women Voters was given at the home of Mrs. James Dally, Mrs. Norris Hoyt, chairman of the membership committee, planned the program.

Mrs. Richard Bolt, president of the Arlington League introduced Mrs. Gordon Thompson who presented a talk on the league to acquaint the new members with league policy and purposes. Among those present were Mrs. Morris Burroughs, Mrs. Stephen De Blois, Mrs. Spencer Dormitzer, Mrs. Roscoe Elliott, Mrs. Eugene Grant, Mrs. James Hopper, Mrs. Percy Morine, Mrs. Stanley Pilling and Mrs. Milton Webb.

Junior Library
NEWS

King of the Wind, by Marguerite Henry, the Newberry Award Winner for 1949 was voted the favorite book in a poll taken recently at the Junior Library. During Christmas vacation the boys and girls voted for the book they liked the best, and in keeping with the season, The Night Before Christmas received the second largest number of votes. Tied for third place were The Story of Babe Ruth, The Dutch Twins and Senior Year, a high school story for teenage girls. Many classics received votes also: Little Lame Prince, Little Women, Prince and the Pauper, Heidi, Robin Hood and The Secret Garden.

King of the Wind, an unusual horse story about Sham, a G-dolphin, Arabian, ancestor of Man-o-War; and his life in Morocco, France and England. The distinguished illustrations by Wesley Dennis add to the charm of the story.

In a vote for the favorite fairy tale Cinderella was selected. Snow White and The Seven Dwarfs was in second place, and Little Red Riding Hood was third. Other stories voted as favorites were: Stepping Beauty, Pinocchio, Peter Pan, Snow White and Rose Red, Pass in Boots. Cinderella was told at Story Hour, Jan. 7, and was enjoyed by all.

A Book Quiz consisting of 50 questions about books presented a challenge to young readers. The questions were based on the classics and favorite books enjoyed by boys and girls of various ages. Story Hour is held at the library every Saturday at 2:30, and each week the program is varied with records, music, poetry and book games. On Saturday, Jan. 21, the entire poem Casey at the Bat was recited by Paul Murphy, a seventh grade pupil at the Junior High Centre. Little Lame Prince, Maria Grace and the Green Parrot were told also; the first three parts of Kipling's Jungle Book were played on records and the children are looking forward to the rest of the story which will be completed next Saturday.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"Spirit" is the Lesson-Sermon subject for Sunday, February 5. Golden Text: "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty" (II Corinthians 3:17).

Sermon: Passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth" (John 4:24). Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include:

"SPIRIT. Divine substance; Mind; divine Principle; all that is good; God; that only which is perfect, everlasting, omnipresent, omnipotent, infinite. . . Spirit being God, there is but one Spirit, for there can be but one infinite and therefore one God" (pp. 594, 334).

HARDY P. T. A.

On Wednesday, Jan. 25, a large gathering enjoyed an interesting program planned by the Parent Education and Pre-School chairman of the Hardy School P.T.A.

Mrs. Beatrice Hutchinson spoke on the subject "Sex Education for Children." The film "Human Growth" followed. This film and talk evoked lively discussion.

Following the question period refreshments were served. Mrs. Ida Copping and Mrs. Alma Abbott were co-chairmen. They were assisted by a committee composed of Mrs. Shirley Coffey, Mrs. Arlene Hoar, Miss Mary Karpinski, and Mrs. Katherine Kelleher.

COMET CLUB

On Jan. 17 a delicious supper was enjoyed by the members of the Comet Club of Calvary Methodist Church, at the home of Miss Dorothy Hall, 39 Harlow st. Mrs. George Burke and Miss Ruth G. Philpott served as co-hostesses with Mrs. George A. Hill, Jr. and Mrs. Robert Chandler, Jr., assisting.

Devotions in charge of Mrs. Hill emphasized "Faith." A business meeting followed, presided over by Miss Alma Hersum, and reports of the Club officers and committee chairmen given.

For the evenings' program, Mrs. Joseph Starkey, Jr. introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Hiram Moody of Winchester, who presented a review of the popular novel "Let Love Come Last."

LOCAL ARTISTS TO BE FEATURED AT P.T.A. FINE ARTS CONCERTS

Miss Barbara A. Ward and Mr. Norman H. MacNeil of Arlington will share solo honors in the two youth concerts presented by the Philharmonic Society of Arlington, Inc., Leo Litwin, conductor. The concerts, under the auspices of the Fine Arts Program of the Arlington Council of Parent-Teacher Associations, will be given on Sunday, Feb. 5, and Feb. 12, at 3:00 P.M. in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall.

The seventeen-year-old clarinetist, Barbara Ward, will be heard in Weber's Concerto for Clarinet. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Ward first studied clarinet with her father, dean of the Arlington Academy of Music. She continued her studies at this school, in clarinet with Robert Stuart and at present with Harold Miller, C.B.S. soloist, and in piano with John E. Hasson, and in solfège with Anastasia Sykes.

Barbara is a senior at Arlington High School where she is an honor student and first clarinetist in the orchestra. She is also first clarinetist in the Arlington Academy Concert Band.

Last spring the Philharmonic Music Committee chose Miss Ward as clarinetist soloist and Francis Fabry as violin soloist for these

Attend Opera

Accompanied by Walter Russell, teacher of music and band, and director at Arlington High School, fourteen members of his music appreciation and harmony classes attended the performance of Verdi's opera "La Traviata" presented Tuesday, Jan. 17 at the Boston Opera House by the San Carlo Opera Company.

Besides Mr. Russell, those in the party included Richard Laman, Robert Card, Brenton Croft, Dominic Ortolano, Phillip Baker, Laurie Arthur, Carol Callendo, Valerie Robbins, Jewel Arthur, Stella Center, Marilyn Croft, Renee Carzanelli, Norma Mazzocco and Mary Ann Mazzocco.

New Visual Care
Course Offered

Visual training, an additional form of visual care, is being offered at the office of Dr. Donald W. Horley, local optometrist.

Visual training will benefit many patients whose visual problems cannot be completely relieved by corrective lenses. While visual training is primarily a specialty of children's visual problems, many adults are helped by the same procedures. Crossed eyes, nearsightedness, and reading problems of visual origin are the most common of the visual conditions frequently improved by visual training.

Associated with Dr. Horley is Dr. John B. Whitney of Ipswich, Mass. Dr. Whitney comes to Arlington on scheduled days to handle the specialty practice. He maintains a practice in Ipswich.

Dr. Whitney is instructor of visual training at the Massachusetts School of Optometry in Boston. He has been continually in contact with the latest developments in the field of visual training through post graduate courses.

Dr. Whitney is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College of Optometry, Philadelphia, Pa. After graduation he remained as a member of the faculty of that institution. In addition, he served as assistant chief in the College Clinics that care for over 18,000 patients yearly.

He is a member of the Massachusetts Optometric Association, the American Optometric Association and Omega Delta, a national professional fraternity.

Fade THOSE WEATHERED BROWN SPOTS

New Kind of Hand Cream Specially Made to do it!

ESOTERICA is that marvelous new kind of hand cream for fading those brown spots that make your hands look old. Also fades other surface blemishes and roughness in a way no ordinary hand cream or lotion can.

Leaves hands whiter, clearer, younger looking quickly—often within the first few days.

While ESOTERICA looks and feels like the finest non-greasy vanishing hand cream, it has an added clearing action. Produced in a laboratory that has studied the effect of cosmetics on skin pigments for 25 years. Thousands gladly paid $5.00 for ESOTERICA.

Now in quantity production, it can be sold for $1.50, plus tax. If you want clearer, whiter-looking hands, get ESOTERICA. Money back if the first jar does not bring desired results.

Milton Berle Is Mr. Television

Milton Berle, who has been called the greatest ad-lib expert in the country, currently holds forth on the highest-rated television show on the air—NBC's Texaco Star Theatre every Tuesday night. While the program is billed as a video-vaudeville show—an hour-long feast of top-notch variety entertainment—there is no doubt that it is imbued with the very personality of Berle: it is fast, punchy, gaggy, surprising, and even astonishing. Berle has been featured on many radio programs, including the 1936 "Rudy Vallee Hour."

Waring Show Salutes Lincoln

Abraham Lincoln and Thomas Lincoln Waring (Fred's brother) will be honored in song during the "Fred Waring Show" on Sunday, Feb. 5; from 9 to 10 p. m. over WNAC-TV.

In tribute to Lincoln, the Glee Club sings "Abraham," "Tenting Tonight" and "God of Our Fathers." "Blue Tail Fly," one of the Emancipator's favorite folk songs, will be sung by Stuart Churchill.

In honor of brother Tom, Waring's Pennsylvanians will perform three of his compositions, "So Beats My Heart," "John Anderson, My Jo" and "Way Back Home."

Ed Wynn Proud Of Those Shoes

A battered pair of size 13 shoes has become seven-league boots for WNAC-TV comedian Ed Wynn on his long strides to fame. Wynn was a struggling comic on the Keith vaudeville circuit when he first donned the shoes in Pittsburgh in 1907. Since then, he has trod the nation's stages through seven years of vaudeville troupeing, 18 Broadway shows and many years of radio and screen work.

The shoes will be 43 years old in April. They have been patched, re-lined and repaired until they look like something a self-respecting hobo would abandon. But Wynn treats these cobbler's nightmares as if they were Cinderella's slippers. And their magic has matched a fairy godmother's wand in making Ed Wynn the Perfect Fool.

Wynn paid only $3.50 for the high-topped clodhoppers, but he has spent an estimated $3,000 for repairs, over the last 42 years. When Wynn takes them out for repairs, the cobbler usually takes one look at the shoes and says "I'll fix them, but you leave the money first."

Recently, a famous New York bootmaker did a $35 job on them, refinishing the exterior and re-lining the inside, making them virtually a pair of shoes within a pair of shoes.

Local Vets Sponsor "G. I. Joe" Film

Under a cooperative plan offered by Eagle-Lion Films and the American Theatres Corporation, Howard Parker, manager of the Capitol Theatre announced today that veterans' organizations will participate in the advance sale of tickets for the showing of Ernie Pyle's film, "The Story of G. I. Joe," due to open Feb. 19 at the Capitol Theatre.

The plan will introduce the film locally under joint vet sponsorship and enable veterans' groups to share in receipts from the advance sale. The following groups are cooperating with the management of the Capitol Theatre in the sale of tickets: The Arlington Post, American Legion, No. 39; The Arlington Post Veterans of War, No. 1775; Disabled War Veterans.

"Yes! We are still reducing the cost of food, and we are going to continue to do so, as our operating expenses are very low," says "Big Sam", formerly of the Publix Food, Davis Sq., Somerville.

Woman's Club Holds

All-Day Meeting

An all-day meeting of the Arlington Woman's Club in observation of American Home Day, took place last Thursday in Robbins
Town Hall, starting at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. Americo Chaves, president, extended greetings and presided at the brief business meeting.

The Arlington Woman's Club
chorus, coached by Mrs. Arthur
J. Mansfield, presented in song,
"An informal gathering at home."
Many features were offered including a duet by Florence Mansfield and Eleanor Shute, a solo by Mildred Griffin closing with a specialty by Margaret Hupier.

Mrs. J. Milton Washburn, Jr.
introduced Miss Vittoria Rosatto, professor at Lowell Textile Institute and Mrs. Marlon Shiffet, director of International Fashions of New York who staged a fashion show. New Spring styles were shown on charming models which brought to mind that Spring is "just around the corner."

Luncheon was served at 12:30 o'clock at the Pleasant Street Congregational Church, by the Mystic Side Group.

The afternoon session opened at 2 p.m. with selections by the Arlington High School orchestra under the direction of L. Hassler Einzig, supervisor of music. The performance of this talented group is always enjoyed by the club.

The guest speaker, Dr. John F.
Conlin, director of medical education of the Massachusetts Medical Society, was introduced by Mrs. Hollis M. Gott, chairman of the American Home Committee.
Dr. Conlin's analysis of the timeliand highly controversial subject
"Socialized Medicine" was very enlightening.

Cups and saucers both antique and modern were attractively arranged in the Art Corners by Mrs.
Harold Clare, Mrs. John Pez and Mrs. Fred Butler of the Art Committee.

Twenty-Eight Groups Hold Festivities

Twenty-eight boys paraded onto the Boys' Club gym floor Saturday morning, holding aloft twenty-eight signs, each sign bearing the name of a group club.

They lined up across the floor,
and with club signs held high,
joined with the audience in singing "God Bless America," bringing to a close the first Clubs Assembly at the clubhouse.

Boys' Club famous cartoon character "Snubby" (drawn by Bob Munstedt for the weekly "Target") came to life in the person of a seven year old boy. Boys of the American Club were unpacked from a large box apparently sent from Key West and labeled "Coconuts." Luke O'Halloran, Shawn O'Halloran, Richard Mahoney,
Walter McGrath and American president Warren McAdoo were the coconuts.

A Group Club machine, guaranteed to make first class clubs, was demonstrated, and after initial failures, explosions and much noise, produced a ten-boy Hobo Club. Out of the machine came John Crowley, Jim Lowder, Bob
Constantino, Don Constantino,
Dave Schajbe, Tom Farrell, Jim Harney, Rene Robillard, Bob Nickerson, John Doncaster and Phil
Perry.

Eleven year old Bob Young amazed the Assembly audience by his remarkable mind-reading feat.
Boy singers were Bill and Bob St.
George, Alan Caswell and Ronald Sousa. Paul Hogan, Dan Scirocco and David Wright (of the Wranglers) paddled a canoe, singing the Indian Paddle Song.

Jim Curtin, President of all the Group Clubs, welcomed the visitors to the Assembly. Warren Mc-Adoo and Bill Drinan worked as clowns.

Bob Munstedt, head of the Arlington Boys' Club Wranglers, presented Alex, the dummy, and a new creation called the "Missing Link."

Wanted by retired physician.
Prefer top of Arl. Hts. and on or near bus line. Some storage space in dry, cement basement, attic or garage. Give price and full particulars in letter to BOX 2, c/o Arlington Advocate, 15 Prescott

Red and Gray Jottings

by Adele Dengeleski

The red and gray hoopers went down for another heart-breaking defeat when they played Brookline last Friday in a hard fought 38-32 struggle. Don Swanson, outstanding, as usual, was high scorer, with 8 points.

Despite the fact that Captain "Kitchie" Reid was missing from the lineup, the girls' basketball team trounced Watertown, 37-21. Everyone marveled at the all-round playing of Margaret Callahan who, although only a sophomore, is a regular first team member.

It seems as though the juniors aren't going to have the traditional Junior Prom. A big discussion was held and the student body was informed that the only possible place of having the prom was the gym, due to rental conditions. The students weren't too enthusiastic in adopting this plan and therefore the outcome is quite uncertain.

The Globe's second party of the 1949-1950 season for teenage editors and staff members of school papers, highlighted by advice on "dates" by Columnist Elizabeth Woodward, was held in the Copley Plaza ballroom, with more than 400 applauding young people in attendance.

Questions were fired fast and thick at Miss Woodward. Everything from "what you consider the ideal date" to the problem of "Why do parents insist we be home by 10?" was answered by Miss Woodward.

Attending the party from Arlington High was Editor Helene Burke and staff members Martha Clancy, Marcia Decareau, Bunny Bell and Mary Torpey.

The Arlington High sextet ended up in a second place tie with Medford, by virtue of its 5-0 victory over Belmont last Saturday.

LAND COURT

(SEAL) In Equity

To Olive M. Cormier and James Cormier, of Arlington, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth; Warren M. Snyder and Marjorie Ann Snyder, of Huntington, in the State of Indiana; and to all whom it may concern:

The Franklin Savings Bank of the City of Boston, a duly existing corporation, having an usual place of business in Boston, in the County of Suffolk and said Commonwealth, claiming to be the holder of a mortgage covering real property in said Arlington, being numbered 23 Marjorie Street.

Given by Warren M. Snyder and Marjorie Ann Snyder, to the plaintiff, dated December 13, 1946, recorded with South Middlesex Deeds, Book 7074, Page 343, has filed with said Court a bill in equity for authority to foreclose said mortgage in the manner following: by entry and possession and exercise of power of sale.

If you are entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 as amended and you object to such foreclosure or your attorney should file a written appearance and answer in said court at Boston on or before the sixth day of March, 1950, or you may be forever barred from claiming that such foreclosure is invalid under said act.

Witness, JOHN E. FENTON, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this Twenty-fifth day of January, 1950.

at the Arena. Bob Babine and Bill Doherty combined their efforts to score three of the goals. The other lamp-lighters were Scott Cooledge and Harvey Wyman.

A vote was taken on the cover color for the Year Book. The final vote was for a white cover with maroon lettering.

Congratulations to Anthony Patton who was recently elected as one of the representatives to go into the State House on Good Government Day. The alternates are Freya Koger and Cosmo Stephany. In the preliminary election, Glen Peterson was chosen senator.

The Student Council is currently collecting money for the March of Dimes. Arlington High's goal is one hundred and forty dollars, and the student body thus far has been very generous with its offerings.

Introducing "KITCHIE" REID

Recently elected as the most athletic girl of the senior class is Philomena Reid or better known to her classmates as "Kitchie". She was the center on the field hockey team and is currently the captain on the basketball team. "Kitchie" plays forward and is known for her trick shots. Soft ball is another of her favorite sports and she is looking forward to this coming season. At home "Kitchie" enjoys cooking and many of the students have enjoyed her delicious hot cocoa. She was one of the lucky girls to be asked to the New Hampton Winter Carnival, where she spent an enjoyable weekend of skating, watching hockey and basketball games, and attending dances. Popular and likable "Kitchie", who has made a success of her high school career, is sure to be equally successful after graduation.

Parish School Plans Parent Organization

The parents of the members of the new St. James' Parish School met Monday evening, Jan. 30, in the upper church, with approximately fifty parents present. The Rev. Maurice J. O'Connor, D.D., gave the blessing, then addressed the assembled group with a talk on the value of parochial education.

Officers and committees were appointed in regard to forming a permanent parents' organization. Those appointed were George Cox, acting chairman; Mrs. Thomas Noonan, acting secretary; Roderick MacDonald, acting treasurer; Membership Committee, Mrs. Roderick MacDonald, chairman, Mrs. Michael Kelly and Mrs. Joseph Warren; Social Committee, Mrs. Arthur Broeg, chairman, Mrs. Frank Gunn and Mrs. Robert Bertini; Project Committee, Mrs. Frank Pearson, chairman, Mrs. Edward Thompson and Mrs. Warren Bates.

Before they organized, the parents, under the direction of Mrs. MacDonald and Mrs. Pearson, gave a Christmas party for the children of the Parish School. There will be a business meeting, followed by a Valentine social on Monday evening, February 13.

Miss Lois Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hart of 62 Alpine st., has been elected co-chairman of the Freshman Prom at Simmons College.

Cream Designed to Fade Spots

Your own two hands may seem to be your worst fashion enemies now that autumn's ultra-feminine styles are upon us. But lady, take heart. There's a wonderful new cream on the market that fades weathered brown spots from your hands as well as freckles and blemishes from the outer skin.

The first preparation of its kind ever developed, the new vanishing-type cream is a miracle worker in turning out those pale hands that men traditionally favor. The secret of its success is a penetrating agent, blended with a non-oily base, which breaks up mass skin pigment.

After summer gardening, picnicking, beaching, and golfing, the fall re-conditioning process for your hands can be remarkably simple this year. Just smooth the cream lightly on the hands. While it smooths them and makes them whiter-looking, its penetrating agent acts as a pigment breaker, fading age-spots and freckles. Furthermore, the manufacturer (who evidently believes in the seeing-is-believing philosophy) has attached a small magnifying glass to each jar so you can actually check up on those age-spots, blemishes, and freckles.

THE NEW CREAM IS ON SALE AT CARROLL'S CUT-RATE ON BROADWAY

ST. JAMES' BRANCH

In aid of the Archbishop Cushing Charity Fund, the St. James Branch, Massachusetts Catholic Woman's Guild, sponsored a bridge and whist party at the home of the regent, Mrs. Kathleen Cunneen, 21 Whittemore st. on Friday evening, Jan. 27.

In charge were Chairman Mrs. Kathleen Cunneen, co-chairman Patricia Cunneen, assisted by Rose Hardy, Sarah Connolly, Ellen Doherty, Nora McCarthy, Rita Warren, Margaret Watts. Refreshments were served.

The reception to the new members of the Arlington Catholic Woman's Club will be held on Wednesday evening, Feb. 8, at 8 o'clock in St. Agnes' School Hall. Mrs. Vincent L. Green, President of the League of Catholic Women, will be the guest artist. Mrs. William Lanning will be chairman of the affair.

Mrs. Jonathan Cartmel of 9 Peter Tufts road gave a group of readings last Wednesday evening, Jan. 25, for the Monabina Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, in Malden, at their anniversary and guest night.

ST. MARY'S CLUB

The St. Mary's Club of the Church of Our Saviour will sponsor a Military Whist at the Parish House on Marathon street tomorrow evening (Friday, Feb. 3), at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. Warren Morris is chairman, and assisting her are club officers Mrs. Bernard Becker, Mrs. John Gustafson and Mrs. Benjamin Rodriguez.

Mrs. Eloise Hancock was hostess on Friday evening, Jan. 27, at a surprise birthday party for her daughter, Patricia. The party was given at her home, 146 Park avenue extension, and members of the Christian Endeavor of the Heights Baptist Church, and other guests were invited. Assistant host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hancock, Patricia's brother and sister-in-law. Games and refreshments were enjoyed, and George McKim showed movies he had brought. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. George McKim and their daughter, Janet; Barbara Parsons, and her cousin from Vermont; Phyllis and Shirley Cook, Geraldine Banks, Ruth Gardner, Virginia Richardson, Osborn Gardner and Seymour Steeves.

A family birthday supper was given Monday evening, Jan. 30, for Miss Betty Jean McKim, a student at Providence Bible Institute, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McKim, 65 Oak Hill Drive. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hancock, and two college classmates of Miss McKim, Miss Fern Simpson and Miss Joyce Waugh.

Friends of Mrs. Percy Back, the wife of the pastor of the Heights Baptist Church, will be sorry to hear that she had a bad fall on the icy streets last Wednesday, and broke her back. Mrs. Back has been at Symmes Hospital, and is expected home sometime this week, where she will be confined for some time. She lives at 41 Huntington road.

The Arlington Garden Club will meet on Wednesday, Feb. 8, at 2 p.m. in the Robins Library Hall. Mrs. John J. Cox, president, Mrs. Leslie O. Anderson will present an illustrated lecture, "The Thoreau Country."

Next Sunday, Feb. 5, will be "Make-it-a-Thousand" Sunday at the Heights Methodist Church.

Burke - O'Leary

At a recent wedding at St. Jerome's Church, where the nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Joseph M. Fitzgibbons, Miss Katherine Veronica O'Leary, became the bride of Raymond Francis Burke. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Denis J. O'Leary, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Mary Burke of Dorchester, and the late Mr. John J. Burke.

Gowned in white satin, en traine, with a finger-tip veil of tulle, and carrying a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley, the bride was given in marriage by her brother, James X. O'Leary. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Edward Kean of Brighton, who wore American beauty satin with matching beaded crown.

The best man was John P. Burke of Dorchester, a brother of the groom; and another brother, Dominic Burke, also of Dorchester, and Denis O'Leary, brother of the bride, were ushers.

The bride and groom, who are

Looney - Law

St. Agnes' Church was the scene on Saturday morning, Jan. 28, of the wedding of Miss Virginia Law, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Law of Arlington, to Daniel James Looney, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Looney of Watertown. A small family wedding breakfast followed at the Hotel Commander in Cambridge.

The maid of honor was Miss Ethel Dangora of Wilmington, and the bridesmaids were Miss Adrienne Tashjian of Arlington and Mrs. Harry Dyson of Somerville. Capt. Robert Plett, of New Mexico, a brother-in-law of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were William Moroney of Washington, D.C., and Charles Marshall of Dorchester.

The bride wore white satin, with living in Somerville, took a wedding trip to New York and Canada. During the war, the groom served with the Army in the South Pacific area.

a finger-tip French illusion veil, which was caught to a headdress of white pearl beading. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. The maid of honor wore American Beauty satin, and the bridesmaids were gowned in gold satin. All the attendants wore braided satin tiaras with short face veils, and carried sprays of assorted flowers.

The groom graduated this month from Boston College. He served with the Navy three years during the war, and following a wedding trip to Bermuda, will enter the Army as a second lieutenant. He and his bride will live at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Dorman - Bohlin

For her wedding on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 28, to William E. Dorman, Jr., of Boston, the son of Mrs. William E. Dorman of Arlington, and the late Mr. Dorman, Miss Virginia Carolyn Bohlin chose a gown of white satin with Peter Pan collar and wrist-length pointed sleeves, the full skirt extending into a train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a cap of Alencon lace, and she carried a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis. The wedding ceremony was performed in the Leslie Lindsey Memorial Chapel of Emmanuel Church by Rev. Robert Metters, the rector, and the Rev. Edward Chandler of the General Theological Seminary, New York City. A reception followed at the Ritz-Carlton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bohlin of Cambridge, formerly of Worcester.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended only by her sister, Mrs. Frederick Garrison Hall, 2nd. (Priscilla Bohlin) of Scituate. She wore a portrait gown of amethyst velvet, and carried a cascade of pink camellias and gladioli to match her coronet.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bohlin chose a gown of champagne crepe embroidered with gold, a matching hat, and a corsage of brown orchids. Mrs. Dorman is the mother of the groom, who is a graduate of Harvard University. During the war he

Siragusa - Assanti

At St. Jerome's Church on Saturday morning, Jan. 28, Miss Gloria Louise Assanti, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Louis V. Assanti, was married to Peter C. Siragusa, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Siragusa of Brighton. The Rev. John Tirella, O.F.M., a cousin of the bride, celebrated the nuptial mass.

Given in marriage by her brother, Philip N. Assanti, the bride was gowned in Chantilly lace over ivory satin, en traine. Her full-length veil of tulle was caught with orange blossoms to a Chantilly cloche, and she carried a crescent of white camellias and stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Miss Alice Carmen Assanti, was maid of honor. She carried a crescent bouquet of yellow flowers, combining roses, snapdragon, acacia, and jonquils, with her emerald velvet gown. The bridesmaids were gowned exactly like the maid of honor and their bouquets, made up of the same flowers, were in cascade. Miss Lydia M. Marasco of Arlington, Miss Gilda Pantano of Somerville, Mrs. Francis T. Siragusa of Boston, and Mrs. Nicholas Tawa of Brighton were the bridesmaids.

Francis T. Siragusa was the groom's best man, and the corps of ushers included Dr. James J. Siragusa, Jr., of East Boston, Richard Jacobian of Newton, Edward Cernigliaro and Nicholas Anzaldi, both of Brighton.

The bride graduated from the Stanford School for Girls, and the groom is a student at the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Clayton Stephen of Grand Rapids, Michigan, was best man, and the ushers were Thomas Cross of Brookline and Richard Bullens of Melrose.

The bride is a graduate of Radcliffe College, and the groom graduated from the Stearns School, Mt. Vernon, N. H., and Northeastern University. During the war he

Latinville - Wright

Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Wright of Lexington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jeanne Wright, to Robert Latinville, the son of Mrs. Edward Latinville of 47 Thorndike street, and the late Mr. Latinville.

Miss Wright is a graduate of Cambridge High and Latin School, and served with the Army two years in Korea. He is now employed by the B. L. Cummings Milk Company.

A summer wedding is planned.

Miss Ruth Bullock Wed At St. Agnes' Saturday To Theodore M. Gilman

Wearing a gown of off-white satin with sweetheart neckline and long train, her finger-tip veil attached to a crown of apple blossoms, and carrying a cascade of white roses, Miss Ruth Bullock, the daughter of Police Chief and Mrs. Archie L. Bullock of 75 Beverly road, became the bride of Theodore Michael Gilmore, nephew of Mrs. Alice Hurd of Newton, and son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gilmore, on Saturday morning, Jan. 28. The Rt. Rev. Matthew J. Flaherty, L.L.D., celebrated the nuptial mass at St. Agnes' Church, where the altar was decorated with rose-colored gladioli. The organist was Mrs. Nolan, and Eleanor Repetto was soloist.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Jacqueline Riley as maid of honor, and Miss Barbara Winchenbaugh, Miss Gloria Sherman, and Miss Marsha Gow as bridesmaids. Henry Gilmore was the groom's best man, and the ushers were another brother, Joseph Gilmore; and the bride's brothers, John, Robert, and Ed Bullock.

The maid of honor wore light green "taffeta" faille, her dark green velvet bonnet trimmed with light green and strawberry plumes, and she carried a dark green velvet muff with matching plumes. Miss Winchenbaugh wore a gown of duobonnet, with duobonnet hat and muff with similar plumes; while Miss Sherman and Miss Gow were attired in straw berry rose gowns, with the same plumes decorating their duobonnet hats and muffs.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bullock chose a gown of royal blue crepe, her matching hat trimmed with rose flowers and maline.

A wedding breakfast and reception were held at the Winchester Country Club, where Ken Reeve's Orchestra provided music. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Bullock of Montreal, Canada, the bride's uncle and aunt, and Msgr. Flaherty. Many of the guests entertained. Among them were Walter Flaherty, who played and sang and accompanied other singers: Tom McHugh, brother of Jimmy McHugh of Hollywood, well-known song-writer; Patricia O'Donoghue of Belmont, and 11-year-old Elaine Forest.

Decorations at the reception included bouquets of pink flowers on each table, pink and white carnations on the head table, and a huge bouquet of pink and white carnations in the fire place. The mantle was banked with ferns. For her going-away outfit, the bride wore a tan suit with cocoa brown accessories, pink hat, and a white orchid. The bride and groom went to New York for their honeymoon.

The bride attended Mt. Alvernia Academy, and Bentley School of Accounting and Finance. The groom studied at Northeastern University, and is a Master Electrician with the Massachusetts Electric Construction Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore will make their home in Arlington.

Birthday Party

Edward Lewis, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lewis of Iroquois road, celebrated his sixth birthday on Jan. 23 with a party at his home. The little guests included Linda Tripp, Joanne Lewis, Marjorie Hancock, James Payton and George Swymmer.

James Payton won the prize for "pin-the-tail-on-the-donkey." The children were entertained by Edward's brother, Robert, who did magic tricks. Supper was served from a table prettily decorated in pink and white, and featuring a birthday cake topped with circus decorations.

Following supper, the children enjoyed the early television shows. While the children were having supper, coffee was served by Mrs. Lewis to her guests, Mrs. James Payton, Mrs. Wilson Tripp, and Mrs. Edmund Hancock.

Services Held For Victim Of Truck Accident

One of three men who were victims of the terrible accident Friday, Jan. 27, in Central Square, Cambridge, when an automobile and oil truck crashed and exploded, Henry D. Fawcett, Jr., 35, of 23 Alfred road, was buried Monday in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Warren N. Bixby at the Church of Our Saviour on Marathon street.

Mr. Fawcett had served all through the war, in campaigns in Africa, Italy, Sicily, and was in the first invasion of France on D-Day.

He was Supervisor of Langdell Library at Harvard, and had lived in Arlington for 24 years. He was born in Cambridge.

Surviving are his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Fawcett; two brothers, George, at home, and William, of New Haven, Connecticut; and three sisters, Cynthia and Edith, at home, and Mrs. Florence Lincoln of Lexington.

MRS. AGNES C. MAGUIRE

Mrs. Agnes C. Maguire, who had lived in Arlington for more than fifty years, where at one time she was very active in community life, died last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert C. Strong, Jr., with whom she made her home at 48 Irving street. Funeral services were held from the D. W. Grannan and Son Funeral Home, with a high mass of requiem in St. Agnes Church. Burial was in Mt. Benedict Cemetery in West Roxbury.

Mrs. Maguire was a member of the Arlington Woman's Club, the Arlington Visiting Nursing Association, and the Searchlight Club. Besides her daughter, a member of the school committee, she leaves two sons, Francis L. Maguire, Jr., of Gloucester and Leonard R. Maguire of San Leandro, Calif.; nine grandchildren; a brother and four sisters.

MRS. MABEL DODGE

Mrs. Mabel E. (Burnham) Dodge, who lived in Arlington for twenty years, and was at one time a member of the Arlington Visiting Nursing Association, died at her home, 264 Broadway, on Jan. 20. She was 78 years old on the eighteenth.

She was born in Gloucester, and lived for many years in Somerville, where she belonged to the Woman's Club, the Portenau Club, the Hortensian Club, and the First Universalist Church. She was also a member of the Daughters of Massachusetts in Boston.

Funeral services were held in the Wilson Chapel in Somerville. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Alfred L. Wilson (Pauline) of Hartford, Connecticut.

MRS. HELEN KEEFE

Sympathy is extended to Stephen T. Keefe of 128 Washington street in the death last week of his sister, Mrs. Helen M. (Keefe) Keefe, in Boston, who, a few years ago, made her home with her brother in Arlington. She also leaves a son, Francis L. Keefe, of Boston.

Funeral services were held from the Daniel F. O'Brien Funeral Home, with a solemn high mass of requiem at St. James Church. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

MISS ALICE M. CREED

Miss Alice M. Creed, 48, died suddenly Friday evening January 20, at her home, 73 Melrose street. She was employed in the bookkeeping department at John Hancock Insurance Company in Boston, where she had been for 30 years. Born in South Boston, she moved to Arlington in 1925.

Funeral services were held Monday morning from her home, with a solemn high mass of requiem at the Immaculate Conception Church. Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery.

She is survived by a brother-in-law, Francis T. Cashman, of Arlington.

MISS JANNIE ROGERS

Miss Jannie Rogers, 54, a nurse, died Saturday, Jan. 21. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning from the home of her sister, Mrs. John T. Freeman, 54 Iroquois road, with a solemn requiem mass at St. Bernard's Church in Newton.

Besides her sister, with whom she lived, she leaves three brothers, William H., of Winchester; George B., of Newton; and John A., of Boston.

ALBERT B. JOHNSON

Funeral services for Albert Bradford Johnson, 73, a retired Arlington steam heating contractor, were held last week from the Hartwell Chapel. Mr. Johnson is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Johnson, 93, a brother, Irving Johnson, also of Arlington; and three sisters, Mrs. Alice L. Drew of Winchester, Mrs. Jennie L. Pierce of Arlington Heights, and Mrs. Mary A. Baldwin of Belmont.

John Carney To Run For Park Commission

John F. Carney of 140 Mary st. who has announced his candidacy for Park Commissioner, is a Town Meeting Member and a life-long resident of Arlington. He has been associated with parks and playgrounds for the last few years, both in Arlington and large neighboring cities. In Arlington he is an active member of the Arlington Youth Association and in this capacity he has direct association with the youth of our town and realizes their problems and needs.

Mr. Carney is a veteran of World War II and former Arlington High School athlete; a present homeowner and family man.
